About the island, Hulhumalé

Hulhumalé is a reclaimed island which is connected to Ibrahim Nasir International Airport by land. Hulhumalé has embraced its potential and intends to further develop its facilities and conveniences to all who would set foot on its shores. Hulhumalé is ideal for tourists who arrive Maldives at night and require an overnight stay near airport before going to resort the next day. It is also the ideal place for travelers just to spend a fantastic holiday in Maldives in a more economical way.
